Country Coach Names Damon Rapozo 2004 Salesperson of the Year

Junction City, Oregon -- Country Coach announces Damon Rapozo of Guaranty RV Centers as 2004 Salesperson of the year, marking the fourth consecutive year Damon has garnered this title.

Damon, who brings a background of technical knowledge to his sales position, has been serving RV enthusiasts for more than 17 years. A Country Coach specialist for the past 9 years, Damon works out of Guaranty RV Center's Junction City facility. Customers may meet Damon online in a Country Coach Yahoo Group or other sites where RV owners exchange. It isn't uncommon to find him sharing informative technical information or answering questions online.

"Damon is an extremely knowledgeable and qualified member of our team", notes Country Coach Regional Sales Manager, Louie Courtemanche. "He has a casual way about him that puts his customers at ease. They know they are in good hands with Damon."

When notified of his 2004 title, Damon responded, "Working for a great dealership like Guaranty makes service and support for my customers easy. I enjoy learning as much as I can about all aspects of the product - particularly with a product I truly believe in such as Country Coach. But my customers are the irreplaceable component. They allowed me to accomplish this goal four years in a row!"
